

The Master's Men to perform at Boys and Girls Homes

Gary Faircloth, President/CEO of Boys and Girls Homes of North Carolina announces that The Master's Men, pictured above, will perform a cappella songs of faith in the Leamon Rogers Memorial Chapel at Boys and Girls Homes on Saturday, July 18, 2009 at four o'clock in the afternoon. The program is free and open to all interested persons.

The Master's Men is a male a cappella ensemble dedicated to providing inspirational music to the glory of God. The goal of the group is to spread the message of God's love in song, in ways that enhance Christian church worship services and other programs. Arrangements include hymns, spirituals, gospel, and other musical styles in four, five, and six part harmony for unaccompanied male voices. All of the ensemble members have considerable experience singing in quartets and/or choruses and choirs. The group was originally founded by the late Mr. Rudy Partin who was a skilled and experienced director and arranger. Currently, The Master's Men are directed by Mr. Robert Cox, a talented choral director, arranger, and Christian Music Minister. Robert is assisted by Mr. Larry Triplett, one of the group's founding members and also a gifted choral director and arranger.

The ensemble has recorded several cd's including "The Old Country Church" that is comprised of songs like It Is Well With My Soul, The Lord's Prayer, Amazing Grace, and God Be With You Till We Meet Again and "When We All Get Together" featuring Mary Did You Know, He Touched Me, There's Room At The Cross, and Go Rest High On That Mountain. The Master's Men's songs are played frequently on North Carolina Christian radio stations. The audience will be captivated by the beautiful harmony and voices and inspired by the songs! The Master's Men is made up of approximately twenty members most of whom live in the Raleigh, NC area. A prominent member of the group is Boys and Girls Homes Board of Trustees member Ken Bland.
